Show Rules:

- Each show will require separate comment cards. Please be sure to turn in your comment cards in the appropriate basket. You may use the same entry form for both shows-please designate on the top of the entry form accordingly
- Youth rabbits must be placed on and removed from the table by the youth. It is assumed that the youth owns the animal and the animal is not owned by an adult.
- This show is governed by the latest ARBA rules, using the ARBA show remark cards.
- Entry forms are to be submitted along with the entry fee on the day of the show.
- Entries must be filled out completely and legibly to ensure proper credit. The WCRBA will not be responsible for incorrect entry forms/remark cards.
- All animals must be on the exhibitors entry form. If the show secretary finds that an animal was shown and was not on the entry form the animal will be disqualified and will not receive any points or awards.
- The show officials reserve the right to add or substitute judges as deemed necessary.
- The breeds that are assigned to the judge will not be changed upon request unless the show secretary deems necessary.
- Lionheads will no longer be allowed to show.
- All rabbits must have a permanent and legible tattoo in the left ear.
- Judging will begin promptly at 9 a.m.
- The animal must be shown in an all-breed class to be shown in a fur class.
- Rabbits must be placed on the show table promptly after the breed has been called to the table. Any rabbits which are not placed on the table for the appropriate class will be scratched and there will be no refund. Please be aware of when your breed(s) is/are showing at the designated table.
- Interference with the judges will not be tolerated. Any exhibitor seen behind the judging table will be asked to leave the showroom, forfeiting all entries and their fees.
- There will be no breeding of rabbits allowed in the showroom.
- Diseased stock will not be allowed in the showroom entry fees will be forfeited.
- No alcoholic beverages are permitted on the fairgrounds.
- No dogs, with the exception of special assistance dogs, will be permitted in the showroom.
- The Washington County RBA nor the Washington County Agricultural Fair Association will be responsible for loss in damage in any way for an exhibit. Every precaution will be taken to secure your safety and that of your animals.
